

JOB DESCRIPTION

EVENING LEARNING FACILITATOR

(ONE YEAR CONTRACT — LAO NATIONAL ONLY)

BACKGROUND

Enfants d'Asie (EA) is a French non-profit organization that has been working in Southeast Asia for over 30 years to promote access to quality education for vulnerable children. EA is working across four countries – Cambodia, Laos, the Philippines, and Vietnam – providing comprehensive support to more than 12,000 children. This support includes access to education, healthcare, basic needs, and psycho-social assistance, ensuring a holistic approach to child development.

Since 1994, our work in Laos has focused on providing individualized psychosocial support through our dedicated support staff, as well as improving schooling and living conditions for disadvantaged children. Our interventions include also the distribution of educational materials, the construction and renovation of essential infrastructure to create a safe and conducive learning environment and improving access to clean water. Additionally, we work to strengthen teachers' capacities through child-centered and pedagogical teaching methods, ensuring a more inclusive and effective learning experience.

Enfants d'Asie's mission is to provide long-term support, enabling children and young people to complete their education, develop essential life skills, and access professional opportunities for a sustainable and empowered future. The purpose of our work is to grow irresponsible and engaged citizens who can contribute positively to their communities.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Job Title: Evening learning facilitator (ELF)

Type of Contract: Volunteering with stipend, 1-year agreement (renewable depending on the NGO's needs and funding)

Working time: Around 2 to 2.5 hours per day, Tuesday to Friday (approx. 8-10 hours per week / 35-40 hours per month).

NB: This is a flat-rate arrangement: the main expectation is to prepare, run, and tidy up the sessions. If the activities can be done effectively in 2 hours, that is acceptable.

Location: Somhong village, Hadxayfong district, Vientiane Capital (on-site)

Expected Start Date: November, 2025

Compensation:

- Monthly stipend of 50 USD
- Fuel allowance: up to 10 USD / month (upon receipts), depending on the volunteer's place of residence and commuting needs. The volunteer is expected to commute to the activity location using their own means of transportation (personal vehicle).

ABOUT THE ROLE

We are looking for a motivated and creative person to run evening activities at our learning center in Bo.Oh. This is not a school position, but a volunteering opportunity with a small stipend, focused on supporting children in their learning journey through fun, engaging, and interactive methods.

The goal is to help children enjoy learning, build confidence, and discover their own way of learning. We emphasize tutoring and support, but always in a playful, positive, and child-friendly environment.

RESPONSABILITIES

- Organize and facilitate four sessions per week (Tuesday to Friday, 15:30 – 17:30/18:00).
- Manage and supervise a group of 10 to 20 primary school children (and potentially later on, lower secondary school children, depending on the project's evolution).
- Cover the following weekly topics:
 - Mathematics
 - Lao language
 - English language
 - Pedagogical games / discovery activities (creative, Montessori-inspired, or similar).
- Prepare sessions in advance and adapt them to the needs and levels of the children.
- Track and follow the progress of each child, encouraging motivation and self-discovery.
- Open and close the center during working days.
- Ensure a welcoming, safe, and enjoyable environment for children.
- Work autonomously, with initiative and creativity, while respecting the overall mission of the center.

PROFILE

- ◆ Lao nationality required.
- ◆ Previous experience working with children (teaching, tutoring, or leading activities).
- ◆ Strong interpersonal skills and a genuine passion for helping children grow and learn.
- ◆ Ability to make learning fun, interactive, and engaging.
- ◆ Organized and reliable, able to prepare lessons and manage small groups independently.
- ◆ Open-minded, patient, and adaptable to different learning needs.
- ◆ Speak English or French (any additional language is a plus).

WHY APPLYING?

✓ Make a meaningful impact – Engage with children through educational workshops, sports activities, and creative sessions, contributing directly to their development and well-being.

✓ Develop valuable skills – Enhance your experience in child engagement, group facilitation, intercultural communication, and teamwork—skills that are beneficial for both personal and professional growth.

✓ Gain recognition for your commitment – Receive a certificate of participation acknowledging your involvement, which can enhance your CV, support university applications, or open doors to future volunteering opportunities.

✓ Join a supportive community – Become part of a dedicated team working towards a better future for disadvantaged children, in an environment where creativity and initiative are encouraged.

✓ Receive allowance in recognition of your dedication – We provide a monthly stipend and fuel assistance.

HOW TO APPLY?

Interested candidates are invited to send their CV and a motivation letter by email to: programmes.laos@enfantsdasic.com and CC: coordination.laos@enfantsdasic.com.

Please use the subject line: “Application – ELF Vientiane - [FAMILY NAME First Name]”.

Make a difference – join us in empowering children to learn, grow, and dream bigger.
